FAZLI FAROOG JOINS NEXASSURE GROUP

NexAssure Group welcomes Fazli to our team based in Singapore. He will be responsible for business development across Southeast Asia.

Fazli joins NexAssure from his previous role where he was responsible for business development and implementation of automotive insurance telematics systems across Asia Pacific. Prior to this role, he spent 10 years working as regional manager for extended warranty and protection products, where he worked on global warranty accounts. He worked in this role for two large international insurance companies with offices in Singapore. He began his career as a service engineer. Fazli is a car enthusiast, expert in extended warranty products and passionate about account management and claims handling. He is fluent in both Bahasa Malaysian & Indonesian.

Harj Sandhu, co-founder and Director of NexAssure said: "Southeast Asia is an important region for us. Fazli's proven experience in Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand and Indonesia among other countries, will help us continue to deliver year-on-year growth for the region. His experience in telematics will assist us in developing new generation of extended warranty products."

Independently owned NexAssure Group headquartered in Singapore with offices in London, Hong Kong and Kuala Lumpur, provides warranty, financial and speciality reinsurance through NexAssure Agency and third-party administration services through NexAssure Management.
